

COP 22 – SIDE EVENT
Egyptian Environmental Affairs Agency and ClimaSouth
GOVERNING CLIMATE CHANGE:
A CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE IN EGYPT
Monday 14/11 EU Pavilion, Brussels Room, from 16:30 to 17:30

PANELIST	TOPIC	PPT PRESENTATION/TIME
Mr. Bernardo Sala, Moderator, ClimaSouth Team Leader	- Welcoming and introduction: objectives of the side-event	NO - 3 minutes
Ms. Elina Bardram (tbc), HoU International and Interinstitutional Relations, DG CLIMA, European Commission	- EU relations with the ENPI South region and partnership with Egypt - Technical assistance (ClimaSouth)	? - 5 minutes
Ms. Yasmine Fouad, Assistant Minister for Sustainable Development, EEAA	- Climate change institutional setting in Egypt - Bridging the gap between science and policy: challenges and needs to increase circulation and sharing of data, information and tools between technical and academic institutions to support decision making	? – 7/8 minutes
Representative from Ministry of Water and Irrigation	- Climate change impacts in Egypt, including recurrent extreme weather events: focus on the water and agriculture sector	? – 7/8 minutes
Mr. Marc Levy, Columbia University, Lead author Assessment and Design Study	- An assessment of Climate Change Centres of Excellence around the world: key findings - Designing for a successful Centre of Excellence in Egypt	YES – 13/15 minutes
Mr. Mahmoud Medeny, Director climate change laboratory – Ministry of Agriculture	- Building on existing structures: the climate change laboratory of the Ministry of Agriculture - First round of comments from panelists on the presentation by Marc Levy	? – 7/8 minutes
Mr. Antonio Navarra, President of Centro Euro- Mediterraneo sui Cambiamenti Climatici/CMCC	- Maintaining long-term sustainability: experience from a well-established Centre of Excellence: the CMCC	NO – 7/8 minutes
All panelists + moderator	- Open discussion - Question and answer - Wrap up	NO - 10 minutes